ESTATE

Our Beresford Estate vineyard in McLaren Vale is located in the cool sub-region of Blewitt Springs. Grown on ancient, deep, sandy soils the vineyard yields fruit as nature planned, with minimal intervention and little irrigation. The Estate wines have a sense of vitality reflecting the nuances of the vineyard and the vintage that makes them truly unique.

BORONIA

Boronia All 'Uovo is redolent of Muscat grapes and raisins. It is rich in flavour but not overly sweet. This is a smooth dessert Marsala in the style of a fortified wine. Boronia is delightful paired with an after dinner platter of sharp cheeses, and it is also a popular ingredient in silky Italian desserts, such as Zabaglione.

6 x 750mL Bottles

GALWAY PIPE

Galway Pipe is an iconic multi-award winning Grand Tawny that marches on with the strength and individuality of the indomitable Sir Henry. A blend of rich, character-filled grape varieties are fermented and aged in oak for an average of 12 years, resulting in a wine of superior quality and uncompromising structure.

QUEEN ADELAIDE

Queen Adelaide has been a trusted Australian wine brand since 1963. In 1836, the first settlers arrived in South Australia and the new Governor; Captain John Hindmarsh requested permission to name the new city after King William IV of England. The King suggested it be named 'Adelaide' after his Queen and the main street was given the name of King William.
