

BERESFORD

BERESFORD

Established in 1985 in the heart of McLaren Vale, Beresford is family-owned and proudly South Australian.

Our Winemakers apply their knowledge and expertise to handcraft wines of celebrated distinction, showcasing the uniqueness and diversity of the McLaren Vale region.

Beresford Estate boasts 28 hectares of premium Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon and 60-year-old Bush Vine Grenache Vineyards. Located amongst those vines sits, Beresford House, Beresford Tasting Pavilion, Beresford Reserve Suites and Vale Brewing Taphouse. All four sites are built with an eye for indulgent detail, providing a visionary space to experience the very best that Beresford has to offer.

GRAND RESERVE

The Beresford Grand Reserve Shiraz is the pinnacle of our commitment to the world-famous McLaren Vale wine region. It brings together the most exceptional grapes from hand selected parcels from various sub-regions within the district.

ESTATE

Our Beresford Estate vineyard in McLaren Vale is located in the cool sub-region of Blewitt Springs. Grown on ancient, deep, sandy soils the vineyard yields fruit as nature planned, with minimal intervention and little irrigation. The Estate wines have a sense of vitality reflecting the nuances of the vineyard and the vintage that makes them truly unique.

EMBLEM

The Emblem Fiano is a testament to the remarkable growth of this grape in McLaren Vale, after 22 years since the Lloyd family planted the first Fiano vine. The unique climate of the region encourages wines of aromatic richness and textural depth, and this Fiano is a genuine reflection of that journey.

QUEEN ADELAIDE

Queen Adelaide has been a trusted Australian wine brand since 1963. In 1836, the first settlers arrived in South Australia and the new Governor; Captain John Hindmarsh requested permission to name the new city after King William IV of England. The King suggested it be named 'Adelaide' after his Queen and the main street was given the name of King William.

BORONIA

Boronia All 'Uovo is redolent of Muscat grapes and raisins. It is rich in flavour but not overly sweet. This is a smooth dessert Marsala in the style of a fortified wine. Boronia is delightful paired with an after dinner platter of sharp cheeses, and it is also a popular ingredient in silky Italian desserts, such as Zabaglione.
